NEWS OF THE NIGHT

"The LORD is righteous in all His ways, gracious in all His works. The LORD is near to all who call upon Him, to all who call upon Him in truth." (Psalm 145:17-18) God is so good! I am so thankful that He has made for us to approach His throne. And not do we have the ability to come into His presence, but He actually longs for fellowship with us. We take one small, weak step towards Him and He takes 100 toward us. Weak and immature love is still real love. He is such a good Father!

Earlier this month, I was able to make a short trip to Texas. It was great to see and catch up with some of y'all.

I have been offered the opportunity to go on a missions trip to the Solomon Islands and Papua New Guinea in the South Pacific for about 2 weeks in early September. We will be taking a team of 5 people into 2 villages to lead some teaching on the house of prayer and sustaining 24/7 prayer and worship. I will be sending out some more information on this in the following months and will hopefully be making a trip to San Antonio sometime in June to make a presentation about the trip and to raise support.

PRAYER POINTS

I would love for you to pray for me. Here are a few requests:

- For "a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of [God]" (Eph 1:17) that I may partner with His heart and His purposes.
- For continued financial provision. Praise the Lord! My new position with Media has given me a small "work scholarship." They pay me a small amount monthly for the work I do. This allows me to save up for a few major expenses that I foresee in the future.
- For spiritual protection as I intercede for our world.
- For physical strength and energy.
- For effective communication in my new media position.
- For my upcoming missions trip in September to the Solomon Islands and Papua New Guinea.

TRUTH TIME

WHAT GOD IS TEACHING ME

Daniel Nash and Abel Clary are two of my "heroes". They were the "prayer support team" of Charles Finney, the greatest revival preacher of the Second Great Awakening in early-mid 1800's.

The following is a quote from the article "Daniel Nash - The Prevailing Prince of Prayer" by J. Paul Reno

"During the Rochester meetings [at which Finney preached] there are several accounts of these two men [Nash & Clary] in deep agony of soul while praying day and night...It seems they were together in fasting and prayer much of the time, weeping and crying out to God. Sometimes they lay prostrate without strength to stand up. Their concern over sinners being lost brought great stress to their minds and souls. They groaned under the load, they risked health and gave up comforts that the battle of the heavenlies might be won. Sometimes they 'would writhe and groan in agony' over souls. God honored their burden-bearing and sent revival. Privately they prayed and publicly God answered. 'Practically everyone in the city was converted. The only theater in the city was converted into a livery stable, the only circus into a soap and candle factory, and the grog shops (bars and taverns) were closed.'"

MINISTRY MESSAGE

WHAT IS IHOP ALL ABOUT?

On September 19, 1999, a prayer meeting began which continues to this day. From dawn to dusk and through the watches of the night, prayer and worship continues twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week. The Prayer Room is the heartbeat – the essence and origin – of all that goes on at the International House of Prayer. May the fire on the altar never go out.

The Global Prayer Room is the central location for the missions base. It was designed to reflect the tabernacle of David (1 Chronicles 22–24), where worship and intercession never cease. The prayer room itself is a large room arranged with chairs and tables, which is open to the public 24/7, day and night. Here we worship our Savior and intercede for our world. IHOP is one of many houses of prayer that the Lord is raising up across the world. We are so blessed to live in such a time as this!
